April 27, 2017
9 – 6pm

Schedule

9–9:30am	Welcome and Overview Jerlando F. L. Jackson, University of Wisconsin-Madison
9:30–10:30am	Overview of the Research on the Black Experience in Education Chance W. Lewis, University of North Carolina-Charlotte
10:30-11:30am	Manuscript Outline Development Barbara J. Johnson, Higher Learning Commission
11:30-11:45am	Break
11:45am-12:45pm	Developing a Research Agenda and Career Studying African Americans in Education James L. Moore III, The Ohio State University/National Science Foundation
12:45-1pm	Break
1-2pm	Publishing Scholarship on African Americans and Education: A Conversation with the Editor of The Journal of Negro Education Ivory Toldson, Howard University/QEM
2-3pm	The Role of External Funding in Educational Research Erick Jones, National Science Foundation/The University of Texas at Arlington
3-3:15pm	Break
3:15-4:15pm	Panel Discussion of Hilliard/Sizemore Alumni Panelists: J. Luke Wood, San Diego State University; Adriel Hilton, Webster University; Rebecca Neal, Hamline University; and LaVar J. Charleston, University of Wisconsin-Madison
4:15-5:15pm	Lessons Learned from Careers Built on African American Research in Education Panelists: William F. Tate, Washington University and Henry Frierson, University of Florida
5:15-6pm	Concluding Remarks and Presentation of Certificates Jerlando F. L. Jackson and Chance W. Lewis